DISTRICT OF VERMONT

In re: Release of Information Related to Supervised Release and Pre-trial Violation Proceedings

GENERAL ORDER NO. 110

This order supplements F.R.Crim.P. 32.1, 18 U.S.C. § 3606, and Rules 57.1 and 57.2 of the Local Rules of Criminal Procedure in providing guidance concerning the release of information by the U.S. Probation Office to the parties at the initiation of a violation proceeding. It concerns the timing of the release of information in support of the alleged violation. It does not alter the right of either side to seek additional disclosures pursuant to F.R.Crim.P. 32.1(b)(2)(B) or as otherwise ordered by the court.

a) Supervised Release and Probation violations

The U.S. Probation Office shall release information in support of the alleged violation to the United States Attorney's Office and to counsel for the defendant (or to the defendant if self-represented) upon issuance of a summons or as soon as possible following the defendant's arrest.

b) Pre-trial violations

The U.S. Probation Office may release information related to a potential violation of conditions of pre-trial release to the United States Attorney's Office at any time. This information shall be released to the defendant or defense counsel upon filing of the Government's motion to revoke pre-trial release, unless the motion is filed under seal seeking an arrest warrant, in which case the information shall be released to the defense at the time of arrest or unsealing, whichever is first.
